The Alberta
Business Family
Institute proudly presents an evening with the Stanton Family.

“True success is never knowing if you’re working or playing,”

John Stanton, Sr.

The Stanton Family is sure to encourage and enlighten you as you consider how their story impacts your own race. Learn how their “family run” business, The Running Room®, has changed and inspired millions to get up and get moving.

Alberta Business Family Institute

Vision

The Alberta Business Family Institute exists to ensure that business families continue to be key drivers of our economy.

Mission

We develop and strengthen business families by providing education and resources tailored to their unique challenges.

Values

We uphold the core values of education and family entrepreneurship by maintaining a high code of ethics, client relations, team spirit and community development.
